This embarking on yet another massive change here at TMOTTGoGo isn't anything new. We've always been innovative with our ideas, features and design, always been prepared to take a risk and always welcomed the chance to shed our skin and re-invent ourselves. It's what keeps us going. We've built up our audience over the last 19 years by taking this stance. We don't profess to understand the paranormal, nor do we try to explain it. We don't preach to you and tell you the way it should be. We do what a magazine should do – ENTERTAIN YOU!! You are the devourers of our passions for the media realm, and sometimes we like tease you with extra fillings of jam – because that's how we roll!!
